PCN Number: 140A00301

Dear Valued Customer:

After a careful review of our database, Mercury has identified that your program or project has previously ordered some or all of the products below. Your future orders may be impacted, should you require additional product. This is a formal notification requesting a response from you within a certain time period.

Background

Your orders may have been placed several years ago, or more recently. This general communication is intended to help you manage the lifecycle of this specific product line as used on your projects or programs. Mercury can provide you with additional purchasing history, should you require help in identifying the programs or locations where used.

Notification

Mercury is discontinuing the products below due to declining forecast, material availability, and to better align with industry demands.

- Last-time buy order date: 06/21/2024
- Last-time buy order shipments completed by: 06/27/2025

*Last-time buy purchase orders will be reviewed and accepted based on material availability and factory capacity forecasts to ensure order shipments can be completed in a reasonable time. This PCN and last-time buy offer do not guarantee a new purchase order can be supported.
