

Product Change Notification

Date	5/16/18
PCN Number	140A00264
Type of Change	Product End of Life
Title of Change	Mercury SSRAM Product die End of Life
Description of Change	Mercury Systems has been notified by our supplier of the end of life of the 256x36 SSRAM die used on the Mercury SSRAM product. See affected part list. Mercury is in the process of determining the business case for redesigning the part with an alternate die. Mercury Systems will continue to support these SSRAM products as long as we have materials to support. Nonetheless all customers are urged to provide a non-cancelable and non-returnable order for all devices needed over the life of their products that use any of the parts that are being discontinued before the last time buy date cited in this document.
Reason for the Change	Mercury SSRAM Product die is going End of Life
